Helping Students to Succeed!

Middle School academics have changed since many of us were students. Gone is the huge card catalog cabinet, leafing through the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature, and the heavy encyclopedias on the bottom of your living room bookshelf. Thanks to technology, the modern Middle Schooler may never know the dread of going to the library and finding ALL of the books on their subject have already been checked out.

Information is Readily Available

Today's student has a wealth of information readily available for use. First and foremost are the books. The Seneca Falls Library staff is dedicated to keeping the general collection, reference and periodicals fresh and up-to-date. The online catalog makes finding the resources a snap. (The Dewey Decimal System is still in place, so not all has changed!)

Interlibrary Loan

When a book is not available at our local branch, students can order it by way of interlibrary loan. Most books arrive within a week, with hundreds of thousands of titles available in the Finger Lakes Library System.

Digital Age

Many of today's students are more comfortable with online programs. Encyclopedias, databanks, periodicals, and other reference materials are available in their entirety through the Library's website.

Online collections include:

- * Fine Art and Music Collection
- * Language Courses – Study up to 72 languages
- * Encyclopedia Britannica
- * Periodicals – Magazines, journals, and newspapers
- * Health and Wellness databases
- * Books – Classics and popular works are available online and by download
- * Literary Reference Center – Online “Cliff Notes”
- * Learning Express – Practice tests online
- * Kids InfoBits – Kid-friendly information on popular topics

Homework Club

What if a child needs a bit more personal help? The Seneca Falls Library offers that too! Every Monday and Wednesday from 3:00 to 4:00 pm though the school year, Middle Schoolers can walk to the library for Middle School Homework Club. Volunteers are there to help students with assignments in a stress-free environment. An after-school snack is provided. When the club is over, they can catch a ride home on the school bus!

Resources are Available

Middle Schoolers of today have Science Fairs, math homework, book reports and all of the other homework assignments that past students navigated. Thanks to the Seneca Falls Library, and other libraries throughout the U.S., finding and accessing the resources needed to learn has never been easier!

Thank you to former Senator Michael Nozzolio and the NY State Senate for approving "Bullet Aid" educational funding for the Seneca Falls Library! The grant was used to purchase six new laptop computers for job training and software workshops. Look for computer lab training opportunities in the near future!

Thank you to the Women's Rights National Historical Park who partnered with the Seneca Falls Library to show movies on their lawn and in the Wesleyan Chapel throughout the summer! We appreciate your support!

Outreach Services

The Seneca Falls Library began an outreach program in February 2017 to the Seneca Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Waterloo. Suzanne Mathewson came up with the idea to bring books, DVDs and other materials to the residents of the facility. Suzanne knew that this section of the community was being underserved. Residents of SNRC cannot come to the library so, once per month, Suzanne brings the library to them! Each month she goes room-to-room bringing materials to be checked out and take requests for the following month. Suzanne says she enjoys this outreach program and loves visiting with the patrons!
