The Board of Trustees of the Seneca Falls Library would like to announce the appointment of Nickie Marquis to the position of Director of Development. Nickie brings over 7 years of experience serving library patrons and communities, having worked in both public and academic libraries in the Philadelphia area.

“Seneca Falls has a great tradition of using and supporting the library, and I’m really looking forward to working with the community. The enthusiasm and commitment I’ve already seen from the Board, staff, and Friends Group is inspiring; I know we’ll continue to provide exceptional services and educational and entertaining programs to the residents of Seneca Falls.”

SILENT AUCTION ON JAZZ NIGHT

Music! Dancing! Drinking! Eating! Trying to out-bid your friends for that great, one-of-a-kind item!

The library’s annual Jazz Night Anniversary Celebration will also feature a silent auction., which will begin at 7:00PM on Saturday, November 13th. Bids will stop being accepted promptly at 9:00PM. All you have to do to place a bid is write your name and the amount you’d like to pay for the item on that item’s bid sheet. At the end of the evening, the person with the highest bid wins the item. It’s just like Ebay, only in person!

There will be approximately 25 items available for bidding. Here’s a taste of some of the items we have up for bid: an on-site consultation with a professional landscape designer, one pie per month for a year, a beautiful set of ceramic plates illustrating Russian fairytales, and a gift basket/wine bottle tote from the award-winning Montezuma Winery. There will be something for everyone, and it’s sure to be a great time.

Don’t miss the fun!

THE HOUSE IS ALWAYS PACKED AT PRESCHOOL STORY TIMES

There are screams and giggles coming from the library! Thanks to a New York State Family Literacy Library Services Grant, the Seneca Falls Library has begun Raising Readers. From September 14th to December 15th, children's librarian Kathy Miller is bringing stories, music, finger play, and more to little ones and their caregivers throughout Seneca Falls and Waterloo. Mrs. Miller visits several Head Start and day care locations every week to read to local children and provide parents and caregivers with helpful tips on improving their children's mastery of the essential literacy skills necessary for young children to grow into successful readers.

In addition to reading to children around the community, Mrs. Miller hosts a story time each Wednesday at 10:00 am in the Josephine Littlejohn Meeting Room. Toddlers, preschoolers, their siblings, parents, and caregivers all come together to hear stories and develop a love of reading. Following Mrs. Miller's story time, it's time to sing and dance with Jill Fogel, a music teacher of over 30 years who specializes in using music to engage and encourage early readers.

There has been an amazing response to the story times in the library and around town; it's just more proof that the kids and families of Seneca Falls love to read!

This grant will allow the library to continue to provide Raising Readers story times through 2011.

All are welcome and our programs are free.

Let's Raise Readers
together!
