A Library with A View A Construction and Campaign Update

Construction

Windows were recently installed as construction progress continues on our new building. Chrisanntha Construction Company anticipates a complete enclosure of the building by month's end. Stairs now cascade from the Mezzanine and walls are being framed for rooms on this level. Roof framing and sheathing continues and site drainage commenced December 5. The construction focus during the ensuing months will be placing shingles on the roof and continuing interior work. Bricks will be placed on the façade in warmer spring weather. We anticipate hosting a grand opening in summer 2003.

Campaign

The Next Edition campaign is inching closer to its goal of $3 million. To date the campaign has garnered nearly $2.9 million. We are extremely close to meeting our objective and we have you to thank for your unrelenting generosity. Our new library is a place we know you will be proud to call your own. We thank you for your continued belief in our vision!

Happy Holidays!

*31 Fall Street, Seneca Falls, NY 13148

Save the Date

As we enter into 2003, our fund raising focus will shift (once we meet our goal) to raising funds to create an endowment to sustain operations in the new building. On February 8, 2003 we will be hosting an event at the New York Chiropractic College to raise funds to operate the new building. This evening event promises to be fun and a great way to shed the winter blues. Plus, it is an opportunity for couples to celebrate the upcoming Valentine's Day holiday. More information will be available soon.

From the Board

Like others who have shared their thoughts in this space, my memories of patronizing a library start early – as a young child. However, the first library I visited was in my hometown of Rochester, not Mynderse Library here in Seneca Falls.

I recall walking to the library and perusing the shelves as a youngster, usually ending up in the easy reading biography section. I liked the quiet, the peacefulness, the books. As I became older, I would often escape a house of three younger siblings and do my homework at the library on the big tables in the reference section.

A love of the library starts early, and now that I have two youngsters of my own I want to foster that appreciation. We enjoy our trips to Mynderse now – whether it's to hear Jan Caraccilo magically read her stories, pick out new books and videos or to simply get out of the house.

I toured the shell of our new building a few weeks ago and was left with two lasting impressions – the airiness of the space and the oodles of space itself. I envisioned myself with a magazine reading quietly in the mezzanine. I saw myself and the kids picking out books and plopping into a chair to read them (not the floor!). I pictured my oldest walking to the library herself and doing what I did – choosing books and getting away from her younger brother at the same time. Who knows if she'll end up in the biography section like I did? As a board member, I am thankful that others in our community share a vision for a new, larger library that will shape the next generation of readers. As a mother, I'm even more grateful.
