NOVEMBER

Global Munchies Taste Challenge
Thursday, November 5
3:30 PM

For Grades 1-6: If you enjoy trying international foods, we have a program for you! Be part of our taste test panel and try a variety of snack foods from China! We will learn fun facts about the country and listen to native music while we taste and rate the snacks. Registration is required.

Family Bingo Night
Friday, November 13
6:30 PM

For kids and their families: Get ready to shout "BINGO!" during this fun-filled evening! Bring the whole family together for a classic game of bingo and the chance to take home some fun prizes. It's a great opportunity to disconnect, enjoy quality time together, and share in the excitement of winning. Space is limited, so be sure to register early!

Good Grief, Mind Your Manners!
A Charlie Brown Etiquette Adventure
Thursday, November 19
3:30 PM

For Grades K - 5: Gather around for a fun, hands-on table manners adventure! In this interactive workshop, children will rotate through exciting, themed activity stations designed to teach essential dining etiquette through play. Kids will gain key social skills in a lively, encouraging environment. We will finish the program with a dining experience using snack items! By the time the event wraps up, your little host will be ready to shine as a helpful, polite, and confident guest at this year's holiday feast! Registration is required.
